

STATE OF THE ROADS

This was brought up several times with various comments on their bad state of repair and how much worse they were than the other villages.

The bridge over the ditch at Town End also needed repairing.

It is quite interesting to see that the problems the Parish Council have had since 1894 are still cropping up with the same frequency to the present Council but we should be grateful that the Poor Houses have long since gone!