

From the demise of steam in 1962 until the advent of Class 43 High Speed Trains in 1978, prestige motive power on the East Coast Main Line was provided by the 22 'Deltics'. 55019 rounds the curve at Chaloners Whin with the 11a.m. Edinburgh to Kings Cross on Sunday 10 October 1976 (G. W. Morrison)